(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 10

THE PASSOVER.

LESSON TEXT—Ex. 12:31-34.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."—Matt. 20:28.

There was a two-fold preparation before partaking of the passover supper. The lamb had to be properly selected and definitely kept a period of four days, Ex. 12:3-6. Then those who ate had to make proper preparation first in the previous eating (12:15) and second in the dress they were to wear while partaking of the feast (v. 11). Everywhere throughout the subsequent references the Passover lamb is used as a type of the Christ. We have chosen to add verses 31-36 and to make a four-fold division of the lesson.

I. Instruction, vv. 21-23. This Passover month was henceforth to be the beginning of the year. It is even so with us that being redeemed by the shed blood "all things become new," we begin over again, the past is as though it were not, 2 Cor. 5:17. In v. 3, we read that the "lamb was for an household" (R. V.) and if the household be too little, then shall he and his neighbor next door be invited to the feast. Christ is for the home, but others should be invited, beginning next door; there is an abundance for all in him. It will be noted that the lamb was to be held four days, so Christ was set apart before the time of his actual sacrifice (1 Pet. 1:20). Salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ was not the remedy of an emergency, an afterthought of God to meet an unexpected contingency. The lamb must be without blemish (1 Peter 1:19; Heb. 9:14; 2 Cor. 5:21), and the fact of it being a year old (v. 5) suggests the perfection of strength which is in Christ.

II. Inspiration, vv. 24-27. God seeing the blood gave them security; they seeing the blood were given assurance. In the days to come, when they had entered into their promised possession, they were to be inspired to obedience as with gratitude they remembered the merciful provision of God. Even so the testimony of God's Word about the blood of Christ makes us sure and we are to tell others of our marvelous deliverance. Peter 1:24.

III. Execution, vv. 28-30. It was not enough merely to shed the blood, it must be applied according to instructions or else there was no security, vv. 7 and 22. Hysop is symbolic of faith. Have we, by faith, applied the blood? See Rom. 3:25; 1 John 1:9; Rom. 10:10. Notice, also, no blood was to touch the threshold. See Heb. 10:29. No Israelite was to neglect to eat of the feast (nor should any Christian neglect the Lord's supper where by he is to feed upon Christ) and further, none but those behind the blood were to eat of the feast. It is quite suggestive that the Israelites "went and did so as the Lord had commanded," v. 28. God's warning received no such obedience from Pharaoh and the Egyptians, and hence the terrible judgment executed.

IV. Expulsion, vv. 31-36. Pharaoh could not wait till morning to get rid of Moses and the Israelites (v. 31). His former dilatoriness stands out in strong contrast now that he has drunk the cup to the bitter dregs. He is insistently urgent and the Egyptians with him, for, said they, "we be all dead men." The Israelites "asked" (v. 35) of the Egyptians jewels of silver and gold and fine raiment. When orientals go to their sacred festivals they always put on their best jewels.

Summary. The pre-eminent value of this feast of the Passover was that it created for the Israelites an opportunity to tell their children the story of how they became a nation. Like as they partook of it within the houses protected by the blood upon the doorposts and lintels and girded for immediate departure so we can be protected by the blood of our Lamb. As they obeyed they were saved. In close connection with this feast was the feast of unleavened bread, significant of the fact that their redemption by God was to be manifested by them in the separation from every corrupting influence. This feast was to be equally perpetual as a memorial of their new bondage to the law of their god. Every subsequent reference to these events by prophet, priest or rabbi emphasized the fundamental fact that it was Jehovah who redeemed them and that in that redemption was the foundation of their national life.

The Golden Text.—Paul was brought up in the strictest sect of the Jews to observe, punctiliously, all the details of the Hebrew religion. He found in Christ the fulfillment of all its suggestions. It took ages to teach the full meaning of the sacrificial lamb, but when its interest was manifested it was Paul, "the Hebrew of the Hebrews," who said, "for our Passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ."

Tell this story to the children in its simplicity, keeping back nothing, and point out plainly that we are a people ransomed by the Lord.

An Educational Opportunity

I desire to communicate with a few energetic young men (farmers' sons preferred) who can appreciate the value of an engineering education, and who would welcome an opportunity to become a student in a proposed engineering project, heavy dam and canal construction and irrigation development.

Each student accepted may join the Engineering Corps and receive a practical Hydraulic Engineering training in actual construction, under competent engineers, extending over period of four years. Fair salaries will be paid from the start, and steady advancement when deserved.

A few spare hours employed by applicants daily for the next two months, with well directed efforts devoted to our interests will secure this opportunity, without cost.

Applicants should give age—how time is now employed and grade of schooling. Full information on request.
